Bradshaw and Henderson there, they have consolidated so some of the things that have taken place, there has been some movement. And I think you give them another year or two, there's going to be more movement. It's interesting at Cambridge, I noticed in the paper that the bank I think gave them $50,000, the telephone company give them $50,000, and I think a lawyer give them $10,000 and I think a dentist give them $10,000 to, so they wouldn't have to, and I don't know if they're going to vote, but I did see that in the paper where they're getting that money. And I guess as I look at this, it seems to me that I don't think now is the time to solve this. I think it ought to go back to the Education Committee and they ought to take a fine look at this because I think, I'm not sure all of these schools should receive money. I have some questions for Senator Bohlke if she'd...

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Now all of these schools still can have a vote, right?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR ROBINSON: They can vote to override.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay. And I know it was brought up by Senator Brown, we're talking about unification, they're going to receive an incentive for unifying. This here to me it seems like it's another incentive.

SENATOR BOHLKE: If you would qualify for the unification.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Right, yeah.

SENATOR BOHLKE: There are some on here...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Depending, I mean some schools would. I don't know...

SENATOR BOHLKE: Some we've said that have already consolidated
